11/13/2014	238	ORDER on Contempt Hearing-First, the court found after oral argument that Defendant did not timely respond to the courts Order requiring the provision of the report. Second, the court has directed the parties to brief the question of appointing a Special Master to oversee a further investigation. Plaintiff shall file his brief on or before December 1, 2014 and Defendant shall respond on the briefing schedule provided in the rules and may include any objections or alternative recommendations as to use of the Special Master at that time. 11/13/2014	239	Minute Entry for proceedings held before Judge Clark Waddoups: Contempt Hearing held on 11/13/2014. This was the time set for an evidentiary hearing on the witness tampering issue. However, the court and plaintiff did not receive the FBI's investigation report sufficiently in advance of the hearing to prepare subpoenas and/or document requests. Oral argument heard on timeliness of FBI's report of investigation, holding FBI in contempt for failure to provide the report, and whether to appoint a special master. The court finds that defendant did not timely respond to the court's order requiring defendant to conduct an investigation on the witness tampering issue and that the report submitted is deficient. The court, however, reserves ruling on whether to hold defendant in contempt and whether sanctions are warranted. The court directs the parties to brief the issue of appointing a special master to oversee the investigation of possible witness tampering. Plaintiff is to file his brief on or before 12/1/2014. Defendant is to file its brief according to the local rules. Attorney for Plaintiff: Jesse Trentadue (pro se), Attorney for Defendant: Kathryn Wyer. Court Reporter: Laura Robinson.
